

Behavioral Sciences Workshops 2021-2022

The Behavioral Sciences Workshop is an interdisciplinary seminar series featuring speakers of broad appeal in the behavioral sciences. The workshop is held jointly between the Yale Department of Economics, Political Science, Psychology, and the School of Management (SOM). It is cosponsored by the Center for the Study of American Politics (CSAP) and the School of Management's International Center for Finance and the Lynne & Andrew Redleaf Foundation.

2021-2022 WORKSHOP SCHEDULE:

- SEP 20      Hunt Allcott, Senior Principal Researcher, Microsoft Research
"Digital Addiction"
- OCT 18      Ryan Oprea, Professor of Economics, UC Santa Barbara
"On the Complexity of Forming Mental Models"
- NOV 15      Drew Fudenberg, Paul A. Samuelson Professor of Economics, MIT
"Evaluating and Improving Economic Models"
- DEC 6        Julia Minson, Associate Professor of Public Policy, Harvard Kennedy School
"You can't handle the truth! Errors in affective perspective-taking during attitude conflict"
- JAN 24      Neil Thakral, Nancy Donohue & Diane Elam Assistant Professor of International and Public Affairs and Economics, Brown University
"Anticipation and Consumption"
- FEB 28      Anya Samek, Associate Professor of Economics and Strategic Management, UC San Diego
"Impact of Consequence Information on Insurance Choice"
- MAR 28      Sudeep Bhatia, Assistant Professor of Psychology, University of Pennsylvania
"Knowledge Representation in Decision Making"
- APR 25      David Huffman, Professor of Economics, University of Pittsburgh
"Incentive Complexity, Bounded Rationality and Effort Provision"

LINK TO CURRENT WORKSHOP INFORMATION